

28. Which of the following statements is NOT true in water heaters?

- (a) The discharge pipe from a relief valve must be trapped.
- (b) When water heaters are installed in locations where leakage of the tank or connections will cause damage, the water heater must be installed in a pan.
- (c) All water heaters must be provided with an approved, self-closing (levered) pressure relief valve and a temperature relief valve, or a combination thereof.
- (d) Water heaters must be protected to prevent siphoning off its contents.

29. The minimum allowable size of any drain, horizontal branch, vertical soil, or waste stack serving one or more water closets shall be?

(a) 3 in

(c) 5 in

(b) 4 in

(d) 2 in

