

701. The volume of a liquid passing through a cross-section of a stream in unit time is called:

(a) Steady flow

(c) Continuous flow

(b) Uniform flow

(d) Discharge

702. A saddle clamp is a pipe fitting that is not used when water service is to be interconnected to the type of water main.

- (a) Centrifugal cast iron pipe
- (b) Asbestos cement pipe
- (c) Galvanized iron pipe
- (d) PVC pipe

