

744. The top of the well is lower than the high position of the previous stratum from which the water is obtained and water will rise through the entire length of the well and may flow from the wall without pumping

(a) Flowing well

(c) Deep well

(b) Shallow well

(d) Artesian well

744. The top of the well is lower than the high position of the previous stratum from which the water is obtained and water will rise through the entire length of the well and may flow from the wall without pumping

(a) Flowing well

(c) Deep well

(b) Shallow well

(d) Artesian well

