

203. A condition in the distribution system where it could damage, or create condition that will damage components of the distribution system or create a nuisance is termed as;

- | | |
|------------------------------|----------------------------|
| (a) Excessive water pressure | (c) Excessive air pressure |
| (b) Loss of pressure | (d) Loss of water flow |

204. What vents are pipes that serve as the drain of one fixture while venting another fixture?

(a) Stack vents

(c) Relief vents

(b) Wet vents

(d) Relief vents

