

139. An impairment of the quality of the water to a degree that creates a hazard to public health and adversely affects the aesthetic and potable qualities of water for domestic use.

(a) Pollution

(c) Potable water

(b) Quality of water

(d) Defects

140. Study of the distribution of the disease or condition in a population

- (a) Public health
- (b) Environmental Sanitation
- (c) Epidemiology
- (d) Environmental health

