

135. It is a compartment in the septic tank for the settlement of floating or suspended matters, sand debris, and any excessive amount of grease or oil from sewage:

- |                           |                          |
|---------------------------|--------------------------|
| (a) Bathing chamber       | (c) Chlorination chamber |
| (b) Sedimentation chamber | (d) Sewage chamber       |

136. The valve for controlling two or more outlets in a cold water supply line may be a?

- (a) Heavy-duty gate valve
- (b) Full-way gate valve
- (c) Ground key valve
- (d) Non-rising stem globe valve

