

416. A line of piping is a combination of elbows or bends, which brings one section of the pipe out of line but into a line parallel with the original section.

(a) Dead end

(c) Drain

(b) Offset

(d) Flooded

417. What happens when air comes into contact with wastewater in the drainage system

- (a) Dragged along with the fixture along the system
- (b) Sudden vacuum occurs in the system
- (c) Flooding of the fixture along the system
- (d) Circulation of the air in the system stops

